Summer Camps

July 13–17, 2020

1. Drip, Dab, Doodle: An Art Exploration
   (Grades 1–2) Explore the elements of art through a variety of multimedia projects inspired by works on view at the Museum. From the Modern and Contemporary galleries to outdoor sculpture, learn about master artists and play art games.

2. Line, Shapes, and Design: Art Fundamental Fun
   (Grades 3–5) Get your creativity flowing while exploring the elements of art through painting, printmaking, sculpting, and more! Learn through visits to the Modern and Contemporary galleries and special exhibitions.

July 20–24, 2020

3. Dress to Express: Exploring Wearable Art
   (Grades 1–2) Create wearable works of art inspired by unique costumes, jewelry, and masks on view in the Museum. Visit the permanent collection galleries and the special exhibition In the Age of Rembrandt: Dutch Paintings from the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston to get inspired.

4. Build It, Shape It, Sculpt It: Exploring 3-D Art
   (Grades 3–5) Create sculptural works of art with materials such as clay, wood, wire, and recyclable materials while exploring volume and scale in works on view at the Museum, including the May S. Marcy Sculpture Garden and the Art of the Open Air installation.

Teen Summer Studios

July 27–31, 2020

A. Expanding Your Portfolio
   (Grades 9–12) Take your artwork in new directions by meeting with other teen artists and creating a portfolio for all art levels. View masterworks from around the world in the Museum and discover new art forms while receiving expert guidance on how to develop and expand your portfolio.

B. Making Multiples: Exploring Printmaking and More
   (Grades 6–8) Discover ways to produce art in multiples by exploring a variety of techniques from relief printing to screen printing. Explore the galleries while learning about print works and photography. Design and print your own unique artist signature stamp.

August 3–7, 2020

C. Travel through the Museum: Rembrandt and Beyond
   (Grades 9–12) Travel back in time to discover works of art from all over Europe. Visit In the Age of Rembrandt: Dutch Paintings from the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston and the European galleries to learn about innovative techniques used by the old masters, from Rembrandt to Velázquez, while creating your own still lifes, portraits, and landscapes.

D. From Canvas to Clay: Art Exploration Lab
   (Grades 6–8) Explore traditional and contemporary painting, printmaking, and ceramic techniques through a variety of art processes while learning about art. Explore the Museum galleries while sketching masterworks and get your creativity flowing with plein-air painting in the park.
