Terms Governing Reproductions or Publication of Images from The San Diego Museum of Art

The San Diego Museum of Art’s ("SDMA's") mission is to collect, preserve, interpret and display the finest works of art that men and women have created throughout time for the benefit of the broadest conceivable audience. To promote and fulfill its mission, SDMA provides reproduction services to scholars, educators, publishing companies, commercial entities, and the public. This policy applies to any and all entities and individuals (each, an "Applicant") wishing to reproduce or publish an image from SDMA’s collection, and to all formats of publication, including but not limited to books, websites, videos, social media, and commercial goods.

1. Permission
   a. Written permission must be obtained from SDMA to reproduce or publish images from or of SDMA’s collections or grounds.

   b. Written permission granted by SDMA applies to one-time, non-exclusive use in a single publication for one edition in one agreed upon language. Subsequent publications, revised or new editions, re-issues, websites, broadcasts, products, and additional language editions require separate written permission by SDMA. Reproduction from printed or photographic materials not supplied by SDMA is strictly prohibited.

   c. Academic uses may be permitted at SDMA’s discretion. Scholarly uses include dissertations, theses, and classroom presentations by students and teachers.

   d. SDMA may permit reproduction for advertising or promotional purposes. Each request will be evaluated on its individual merits.

   e. SDMA reserves the right in its sole discretion, exercisable at any point in the reproduction process, to revoke permission previously granted to any Applicant whose product or publication is not acceptable to SDMA for any reason.

   f. SDMA reserves the right to require the Applicant to obtain written approval of the final use or publication of SDMA’s images prior to general distribution, sale or publication.

   g. Written permission granted by SDMA hereunder is not transferrable without prior written approval by SDMA in its sole discretion.

   h. Images published on SDMA’s website are available for public, personal, non-commercial use without obtaining prior written permission from SDMA. However, SDMA reserves the right in its sole discretion, exercisable at any time with or without prior notice, to change its policy concerning images published on SDMA’s website.

2. Copyrights
   a. For works of art by living artists and other material subject to the 1976 Copyright Act (Title 17, United States Code) written permission to reproduce copyrighted material must be secured by the licensee from the artist, their agent, or copyright owner. The licensing of collection materials for reproduction by SDMA does not imply permission to reproduce under United States copyright law, nor does it represent that SDMA owns copyright or non-exclusive license rights.

   b. Copyright ownership and/or reproduction rights may be retained by the artist for works of art created after January 1, 1978. Any and all royalty payments or other requirements specified by the copyright owner of such a work must be paid or honored by the publisher or agent requesting reproduction permission.

c. Applicants assume all responsibility for questions of copyright and the violation of rights of privacy and publicity that may arise in the use of material images reproduced by SDMA, and all Applicants are encouraged to obtain the advice of independent legal counsel concerning such matters. SDMA may require that the Applicant deliver the copyright holder’s written permission to reproduce an image before SDMA delivers the image.

3. Images
a. Images will be provided as digital files at 300 dpi.

b. Reproductions may not be altered, cropped, bled, guttered, printed on colored stock, nor superimposed with print unless approved in writing by SDMA.

c. Color proofs and layouts must be submitted to SDMA for approval prior to publication for commercial uses and/or covers of publications.

d. Images of black and white originals may NOT be printed with colored ink.

e. If an image detail is approved, the word “DETAIL” must appear in the credit line.

f. Duplication of any images sold, licensed or rented by SDMA is strictly prohibited.

4. Credit Line
a. The credit line as provided must always appear with each image used.

b. The credit line is to appear exactly as provided by SDMA on the invoice. It must be shown in immediate proximity to the reproduction or in the section of the publication devoted to acknowledgments. In the use of television or films, full credit must be included in the program credits, and when applicable, in the accompanying manual.

c. The credit line must include the URL: http://www.SDMArt.org.

5. Commercial Use
a. Commercial use is defined as use of an image for commercial applications, including but not limited to advertising, promotions, publicity, campaigning, and merchandise.

b. SDMA may permit reproduction for commercial use of images on a case-by-case basis. Each request will be evaluated on its individual merits.

c. Commercial use is subject to usage fees as provided herein. SDMA reserves the right to request merchandise in lieu of fees for commercial applications.

6. Personal Use
If the image is for personal and noncommercial use (e.g., a personal website), SDMA may grant permission so long as the Applicant does not advertise, have sponsors, charge a fee for services, or offer any product or service for sale, and such use otherwise constitutes a “fair use” as defined in the United States copyright laws.

7. Fees
a. Fees vary based on the commercial nature or non-profit status of the request, the type of material requested, the nature of use, the scope of distribution, and other relevant factors that SDMA may apply in its sole discretion from time to time.
b. Payment in advance may be required. Payment may not be deferred until publication date. Payments from outside the United States must be sent via wire transfer.

c. SDMA reserves the right to change any or all of its fees at any time, with or without prior notice.

v. All digital files will be sent via a digital transfer app such as Dropbox or Hightail.

8. Complimentary Copies to SDMA

SDMA requires two (2) complimentary copies of each publication, film, video or other production in which the reproduction(s) appear(s). These must be sent within ten (10) business days following the first date of general distribution, sale or publication, to the attention of the Registrar’s Office at P.O. Box 122107, San Diego, CA 92112-2107.

9. Trademarks

SDMA owns and maintains various registered and unregistered common law trademarks, service marks and logos (collectively, the “Trademarks”), including but not limited to “SDMA San Diego Museum of Art” and “SDMA.” Nothing contained herein should be construed as granting, by implication or otherwise, any license or right to use any of the Trademarks without the express written permission of SDMA. Unauthorized use of the Trademarks, except as authorized herein, is strictly prohibited.

10. Indemnification
SDMA assumes no responsibility or liability for any claims against the Applicant or SDMA by third parties including the artists, their agents, estates, or by any parties in connection with the reproduction of works of art in the collection of SDMA. The Applicant will indemnify, defend and hold SDMA harmless from and against any and all claims, damages, liabilities, costs and expenses, including attorney’s fees and costs, arising from or relating to the Applicant’s reproduction of SDMA’s images or works in SDMA’s collection.

SDMA expressly reserves the right to change these Terms Governing Reproductions or Publication of Images from The San Diego Museum of Art at any time, with or without prior notice. For additional information please contact the Rights & Reproduction Department of the San Diego Museum of Art.
